UCP SEGUIN ANNOUNCES FRANK CATALANO, JR.
AS CO-CHAIR OF “LIFE WITHOUT LIMITS” CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

(October 11, 2017) UCP Seguin of Greater Chicago is pleased to announce that Frank Catalano, Jr. of Elmhurst has accepted the position of Co-Chair of the agency’s “Life Without Limits” Capital Campaign.

Catalano will play a major role in UCP Seguin’s efforts to raise $1.6 million for three major components of the capital campaign: establish a new UCP Seguin center to provide community-inclusive Employment and Life Skills Training services within DuPage County; establish an innovative, technologically advanced residential home for four individuals within DuPage County known as an IHOME; and complete needed rehabilitation to current UCP Seguin residential homes and centers providing safe, accessible and functional sites.

Catalano serves as President of the Elmhurst-based Catalano & Associates real estate firm. Catalano’s company represents three generations of real estate brokers specializing in real estate sales, leasing, management, construction and finance. Frank joined the UCP Seguin Board in 2015, and has played a significant role in identifying and assisting in acquisition of additional UCP Seguin program sites.

UCP Seguin is a multifaceted nonprofit agency offering an array of services to children and adults with disabilities across the Greater Chicago area, including the community of Elmhurst. As one of 14 members of the UCP Seguin Board, Catalano provides significant input into the organization’s policies, programs, strategic direction, and finances, with a particular focus on human resources, board governance and property management.
