UCP SEGUIN ANNOUNCES BETH MANNINO AS CO-CHAIR OF “LIFE WITHOUT LIMITS” CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

(October 11, 2017) UCP Seguin of Greater Chicago is pleased to announce that Beth Mannino of Eden, UT has accepted the position of Co-Chair of the agency’s “Life Without Limits” Capital Campaign.

Mannino will play a major role in UCP Seguin’s efforts to raise $1.6 million for three major components of the capital campaign: establish a new UCP Seguin center to provide community-inclusive Employment and Life Skills Training services within DuPage County; establish an innovative, technologically advanced residential home for four individuals within DuPage County known as an IHOME; and complete needed rehabilitation to current UCP Seguin residential homes and centers providing safe, accessible and functional sites.

Mannino has served on the UCP Seguin Board since 2008. She is a Chartered Financial Analyst and is a member of the CFA Institute. Formerly she worked as Head of Distribution for SilverPepper Funds, a Lake Forest-based mutual fund company specializing in hedged strategies, and spent 12 years with American Century Investments, a top 20 mutual fund manager. She has a B.S. in Economics as well as an M.B.A., both from the University of Iowa. Beth and her husband Paul Schick reside in Chicago.

UCP Seguin is a multifaceted nonprofit agency offering an array of services to children and adults with disabilities across the Greater Chicago area, including the city of Chicago. As one of 14 members of the UCP Seguin Board, Mannino provides significant input into the organization’s policies, programs, strategic direction, and finances, with a particular focus on board governance and stewardship of agency resources.
